

1 THE CHAIRMAN: Can't be much later, there is
2 only one more Section.

3 DR. BURDETTE: Is it the intention of the
4 Committee to cut out the provision about, legislation
5 shall not be introduced in the latter days of the session?

6 THE CHAIRMAN: Yes, that is coming. You want
7 to state it, Dr. Bard? Any further questions?

8 MR. GENTRY: The present Constitution says
9 the laws are to be read on three different days. Is this
10 to be preserved?

11 THE CHAIRMAN: No, the Committee comments on 12 this in its Report. Any further questions? You want to 13 discuss it? I don't mean to cut you off.

14 MR. GENTRY: There are no three readings.

15 THE CHAIRMAN: State the position of the Com-
16 mittee, Dr. Bard.

17 DR. BARD: I think the statement is right
18 here, the last paragraph, this should be left to the 19 General Assembly itself. Require bills to be read on 20 three different days is a legislative procedure in the 21 Anglo-American tradition.
